- (2) after Section 37A, following new section shall be inserted, namely:—

“37B. Procedure to be followed on arrest of a person.—(1) When a Sales Tax Officer authorized in this behalf arrests a person under section 37A, he shall immediately intimate the fact of the arrest of that person to the Special Judge who may direct such Officer to produce that person at such time and place and on such date as the Special Judge considers expedient and such Officer shall act accordingly.

- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the sub-section (1), any person arrested under this Act shall be produced before the Special

Judge or, if there is no Special Judge within a reasonable distance, to the nearest Judicial Magistrate, within twenty-four hours of such arrest, excluding the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the Court of the Special Judge or, as the case may be, of such Magistrate.

(3) When any person is produced under sub-section (2) before the Special Judge, he may, on the request of such person, after perusing the record, if any, and after giving the prosecution an opportunity of being heard, admit him to bail on his executing a bond, with or without sureties, or refuse to admit him to bail and direct his detention at such place as he deems fit:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall preclude the Special Judge from cancelling the bail of any such person at a subsequent stage if, for any reason, he considers such cancellation necessary, but before passing such order he shall afford such person an opportunity of being heard, unless for reasons to be recorded he considers that the affording of such opportunity shall defeat the purposes of this Act.

(4) When such person is produced under sub-section (2) before a Judicial Magistrate, such Magistrate may, after authorizing his detention in such custody at such place and for such period as he considers necessary or proper for facilitating his earliest production before the Special Judge, direct his production before the Special Judge on a date and time to be fixed by him or direct such person to be forthwith taken to, and produced before, the Special Judge and he shall be so taken.

(5) Nothing in sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) shall preclude the Special Judge or the Judicial Magistrate from remanding any such person to the custody of the Sales Tax Officer holding inquiry against that person if such Officer makes a request in writing to that effect, and the Special Judge or the Judicial Magistrate, after perusing the record, if any, and hearing such person, is of the opinion that for the completion of inquiry or investigation it is necessary to make such order:

Provided that in no case the period of such custody shall exceed fourteen days.

(6) When any person is arrested under this Act, the Sales Tax Officer shall record the fact of arrest and other relevant particulars in the register specified in sub-section (10) and shall immediately proceed to inquire into the charge against such person and if he completes the inquiry within twenty-four hours of his arrest, excluding the time necessary for journey as aforesaid, he may, after producing such person before the Special Judge or the nearest Judicial Magistrate, make a request for his further detention in his custody.

(7) While holding an inquiry under sub-section (6), the Sales Tax Officer shall exercise the same powers as are exercisable by an officer in charge of a police station under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), but such Officer shall exercise such powers subject to the foregoing provisions of this section while holding an inquiry under this Act.

(8) If the Sales Tax Officer, after holding an inquiry as aforesaid, is of the opinion that there is no sufficient evidence or reasonable ground for suspicion against such person, he shall release him on his executing a bond, with or without sureties, and shall direct such person to appear, as and when required, before the Special Judge, and make a report to the Special judge for the discharge of such person and shall make a full report of the case to his immediate superior.

(9) The Special Judge to whom a report has been made under sub-section (8), may, after the perusal of record of the inquiry and hearing the prosecution, agree with such report and discharge the accused or, if he is of the opinion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against such person, proceed with his trial and direct the prosecution to produce evidence.

(10) The Sales Tax Officer empowered to hold inquiry under this section shall maintain a register to be called "Register of Arrests and Detention" in the prescribed form in which he shall enter the name and other particulars of every person arrested under this Act, together with the time and date of arrest, the details of the information received, the details of things, goods or documents, recovered from his custody, the name of the witnesses and the explanation, if any, given by him and the manner in which the inquiry has been conducted from day to day; and such register or authenticated copies of its aforesaid entries shall be produced before the Special Judge, whenever such Officer is so directed by him.

(11) After completing the inquiry, the Sales Tax Officer shall, as early as possible, submit to the Special Judge a complaint in the same form and manner in which the officer in charge of a police-station submits a report before a court.

(12) Any Magistrate of the first class may record any statement or confession during inquiry under this Act, in accordance with the provisions of section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

(13) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this section, the Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, authorize any other officer working under the Central Board of Revenue to exercise the powers and perform the functions of a Sales Tax Officer under this section, subject to such conditions, if any, that it may deem fit to impose.”; and

(3) after section 40A, the following new section shall be inserted, namely:—

“40B. Power to stop and search conveyances.—(1) Where the Sales Tax Officer has reason to believe that within the territories of Pakistan, including territorial waters, any conveyance has been, is being, or is about to be, used in the removal of any taxable goods or in the carriage of any illegal removal of taxable goods, he may, at any time, stop any such conveyance and—

- (a) rummage and search any part of the conveyance;
- (b) examine and search any goods thereon; and
- (c) break open the lock of any door, fixture or package for making search.

(2) Where in the circumstances referred to in sub-section (1), it becomes necessary to stop any conveyance, the Sales Tax Officer may use or cause to be used all lawful means for stopping it or preventing its escape including, if all other means fail, firing upon it.”.

12. Repeal of certain laws.—The following laws are hereby repealed, namely:—

- (i) The Wealth-tax (Amendment) Ordinance, 1995 (XXVI of 1995);
- (ii) The Income Tax (Third Amendment) Ordinance, 1995 (XXVII of 1995);
- (iii) The Income Tax (Fourth Amendment) Ordinance, 1995 (XLVIII of 1995); and
- (iv) The Income Tax (Fifth Amendment) Ordinance, 1995 (LX of 1995).

DECLARATION UNDER THE PROVISIONAL COLLECTION OF TAXES ACT, 1931 (XVI OF 1931)

It is hereby declared in terms of section 3 of the Provisional Collection of Taxes Act, 1931 (XVI of 1931), that it is expedient in the public interest that the provisions of clause 6(4) and 11(1) (c) of this Bill shall have immediate effect under the said Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The purpose of this Bill is to make financial provisions for the year beginning on the first day of July, 1995. The various provisions have been explained in the Notes on Clauses.
